This is the second release of sparkling wine in our history, and the result is very pleasing. Here you will find a very feminine style of Blanc de Blancs, with a very fine petulant bubble, and fresh aromas. Beautiful apple and hazelnut aromas, crisp and toasty on the palate, with lively acidity and a yeasty finish. The source vineyard for the sparkler is a small Chardonnay vineyard on the front lawn of the Corey Creek winery grounds. The vines are quite old and produce a minerally and pronounced character. In the cellar the wine was aged on the first cork for two years following harvest, and was disgorged in January 2009. It was finished with a 9 grams per liter dosage (Brut). The wine was made in the traditional style of Champagne (Methode Champenoise), and was accomplished by hand, one bottle at a time. The label features an original oil on canvas work by artist and friend April Gornik. It is called “Clouds Over the Sea” (2007). It clearly reflects her preoccupation with landscape, its beauty, its personality, and its ability to reflect our critical human emotions.
